

SAVE THE DATE — 10 MARCH 2026, HELSINKI

Inaugural European Workshop on Co-disposal and Filtered Tailings

Mine Environment Management and Knight Piésold host a collaborative workshop and open discussion on the advancement of co-disposal and filtered tailings in mine waste management.

Hear from industry leaders, including:

- STEVEN PEARCE, MINE ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT: Geochemical Risk and Considerations
- JOÃO VERDE, KNIGHT PIÉSOLD: Case study – Design, Operations and Closure
- TEEMU KARLSSON, GTK: Co-disposal of Waste Rock and Tailings – Methods and Testing at GTK SMARTTEST Field
- KEN GROHS, PT AGINCOURT RESOURCES: Case Study of Filtered Tailings and Co-disposal from an Operating Site
- ALAN MARTIN, LORAX: Management of Potentially Acid Generating Mine Waste Through Co-Disposal – Considerations and Case Studies

Language: English

FOR WHOM: Industry leaders, mine owners, operators, consultants, engineers, researchers.

WHEN: 10th March 2026 at 09:00 - 16:30

PLACE: Scandic Aviacongress Helsinki (Helsinki Airport)

COST: €500 (incl. lunch and coffee)

Ten discounted student places available (€250) on first come, first served basis.

TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST PLEASE CLICK HERE

Feel free to share this invitation with colleagues and partners who would benefit from attending.